Pru and Scott Adams who love the Sounds, also love their HotSpring Spa with its built-in audio system and exclusive back massager - as below.

Says Scott, “As Pru and I loved the spa experience when visiting Nick Fulton, my father-in-law, who’s place in the Sounds has a HotSpring Spa, we both decided we wanted one of our own.”

However, they decided to check out the different spa brands first. After talking to lots of spa owners, they settled on a HotSpring Spa from Wrights as being the best value for money. Adds Scott, “Others were cheaper, but in the longer term we felt they’d need more chemicals and would use more power.”

Since then, Scott & Pru sold the spa, with their home. Says Pru, “I believe the spa certainly added value to the house sale.”

Continues Scott, “It was amazing how quickly we missed having a spa. So, we went back to Wrights and purchased a HotSpring Envoy model, with a back massager and built-in audio system – which gives the ultimate, relaxing spa experience.”

“And with regard to Wright’s service”, Scott enthusiastically adds, “considering we’re in Blenheim, they’re truly superb, as their attitude is always, ‘No worries, we’ll sort it’ – I can’t image how you could get better service.”

“So, my father-in-law was right, Wright HotSpring Spas are the best.”
