

“Getting the best spa really was an uphill struggle!”

Nicola Rich and Damian Scoon,
Huntsbury Hill, Christchurch.

After the challenges of getting their HotSpring Sumatran spa up onto their purpose built patio deck, Nicola and Damian love the relaxation and quality time it now provides.

Inspired by the soothing luxury of Hanmer Springs hot pools, Damian Scoon and partner Nicola Rich decided to invest in their own spa. Damian's a fencer and suffers the muscle aches that come with the job. So, which spa? And from whom?

Despite visiting about every spa shop in town, Damian and Nicola found themselves returning again and again to Wrights. Four times actually. And two test soaks.

Says Damian, "We had a bit of difficulty coming to terms with the cost of HotSprings versus some of the others." Adds Nicola, "But Wrights were brilliant... patient, informative and very helpful when we told them about the problems of our hill-side home."

Finally, convinced of the superiority of both HotSpring spas and Wrights service, they chose a Sumatran Spa. Installation day. No room for a crane or hiab. Instead the team from Wrights carried the spa up hill to the house and then lifted it up onto the second floor balcony. No charge. As Wrights said, "Just part of the service."

Concludes Nicola, "The whole experience with Wrights was brilliant, no - exceptional. Our Wrights HotSpring spa is the greatest place to spend quality time together without a care in the world. Thank you Wrights."
