

“All our Christmases really did come at once”

Gail and Brendon Woods

After a hard days farm work, Brendon and Gail love relaxing and unwinding in their HotSpring Sovereign spa, with its exclusive back massager.

After years of putting it off, Burnham dairy farmers, Brendon and Gail Woods, decided to treat themselves to a spa. So they started a search of, as they say, “every spa shop in Christchurch”.

One day, they walked into Wright HotSpring Spas. Says Gail, “Unlike other shop staff, Wrights took the time to determine why we wanted a spa, and then showed us options to meet those needs. They then explained why HotSprings was a superior spa. Quite plainly, they were altogether more attentive and knowledgeable.”

So, on Friday, December 21 last year, Brendon and Gail ordered their HotSprings Sovereign spa from Wrights. “Not for a moment”, says Brendon, “did we expect to be enjoying our new spa before mid-January. Yet by December 23rd it was installed and by Christmas eve we were using it”.

Since then, Wrights have stayed in touch to make sure everything is OK and to ensure Brendon and Gail follow their spa maintenance programme. “Now that’s the sort of service everyone hopes to get, but too often don’t”. As the Woods tell their friends: “Getting a HotSpring spa from Wrights is the best thing they could do”.
